Arihant : Aakriti 2k23 - The Clans of India

The Aakriti-2k23 Tune Your Cognizance inter-college and school fest, held on November 24th, 2023, was a vibrant celebration of commerce, management, and cultural diversity. With the overarching theme of "The Clans of India," the event showcased a plethora of activities and competitions that encapsulated the essence of Indian heritage and modernity.

The fest boasted a diverse range of events catering to various interests and talents. From intellectually stimulating challenges like the Business Quiz and General Knowledge Quiz to the creative expression found in events like Air Crash, Rangoli, and Face Painting, there was something for everyone. Participants also showcased their managerial skills in the Best Manager event, while others demonstrated their ability to revive products in the Product Re-Launch competition.

Cultural enrichment was at the forefront with events like I Can Teach, Stand-Up Comedy, Poetry Writing, Dance, Singing, Ikebana, Dumb Charades, and Photography & Content Writing. These events provided platforms for participants to showcase their talents, creativity, and cultural prowess.

The gaming arena buzzed with excitement as participants engaged in competitive gaming, adding a modern touch to the festivities. Additionally, activities like Grooming and Photography & Content Writing offered opportunities for personal growth and expression.

The highlight of the fest was the announcement of winners. St. Clarets College emerged as the overall champions, showcasing their prowess across various events. Jain Humanities Center secured the position of runners-up, displaying commendable talent and skills. Both the institutions were awarded with cash prizes, acknowledging their outstanding performances and contributions to the event.
