Chairman's Message

I am delighted to announce the release of our college newsletter, Arihant Pulse, which showcases the latest campus news and the achievements of our students and staff who continue to bring pride to the institution. Arihant Group of Institutions (AGI) stands as a role model, offering students an opportunity to be part of an exceptional educational experience.

With the support of a highly qualified and dedicated faculty, AGI has earned an impressive ranking in a short span of time. I am confident that, with this momentum, AGI will continue to rise among the top institutions in the country.

The education we provide not only ensures academic success but also transforms our students, empowering them for a successful future.

On this occasion, I extend my best wishes to everyone who contributed to making Arihant Pulse a reality. I trust that this edition will inspire both students and staff to continue striving for excellence and to make even greater contributions for the future issues. Congratulations to all the contributors!

GO GREEN BY PLANTING TREES

16th May 2024, students from Arihant Pre-University College organized a tree plantation drive at Hedge Farms, Horticulture, as part of their commitment to promoting environmental sustainability. The event aimed to enhance local biodiversity and contribute to a greener environment.

The program began with an educational session where students learned about the importance of afforestation and how trees help reduce carbon footprints. With the guidance of expert horticulturists, they planted a variety of native saplings, chosen for their role in creating a sustainable ecosystem. The students were enthusiastic and worked diligently to ensure the saplings were properly spaced and watered.

This tree plantation drive was more than just a symbolic gesture; it was part of a long-term project to transform Hedge Farms into a flourishing green space. The students pledged to take responsibility for the saplings, regularly visiting the site to ensure their growth into mature trees.

The initiative reflects Arihant College's mission to foster environmentally conscious young citizens. The students left the event with a sense of pride, knowing they had taken meaningful steps toward a more sustainable future.

HUNT FOR TALENTS ON Questa de Talento

30th May 2024, Arihant Pre-University hosted its highly anticipated talent hunt, Questa de Talento, an event designed to showcase the diverse talents of students. The competition saw enthusiastic participation in categories such as dancing, singing, stand-up comedy, and mandala art making, providing a platform for students to express their creativity and skills.

The event began with Mesmerizing Dance performances, where participants displayed their energy and rhythm, captivating the audience with their moves. Following this, the singing segment saw students deliver soulful renditions of popular songs, leaving the crowd in awe of their vocal talents. The stand-up comedy act lightened the atmosphere as participants presented hilarious routines, bringing smiles and laughter to the crowd. Additionally, the mandala art-making segment allowed students to express their creativity through intricate and colorful designs, showcasing the depth of their artistic skills.

After much deliberation, the winners were announced. Rishabh Porel secured the first place for his outstanding performance, showcasing versatility across multiple talents. Rishika Parmar earned second place for her captivating act, while Pari M Bafna claimed third place for her artistic expression. Khushbu Jain received a well-deserved consolation prize for her efforts and creativity. The event concluded with the winners being awarded certificates and accolades for their impressive performances.

Questa de Talento was a resounding success, encouraging students to continue nurturing their talents and embracing opportunities to shine.

Kargil Diwas

26th July 2024, Arihant Pre-University College observed Kargil Vijay Diwas with deep patriotism, honoring the brave soldiers who fought in the 1999 Kargil War. The event aimed to instill pride and patriotism among students while remembering the valor of the Indian Armed Forces.

The celebration began with an emotional video presentation recounting the history of the Kargil War and highlighting the courage of the Indian soldiers during key battles. The audience was left in awe of the bravery displayed by the Indian Army.

Following the presentation, a collage-making competition allowed students to creatively express their respect for the soldiers. Using images, quotes, and symbols, they crafted heartfelt tributes to the nation's heroes.

The event concluded with a moment of silence in remembrance of the fallen soldiers. Students and faculty reflected on the significance of Kargil Vijay Diwas, inspired by the soldiers' courage and dedication. The celebration was a moving tribute, fostering patriotism and unity while leaving a lasting impact on everyone present.

Apasyu Cultural Forum Audition

13th June 2024, the Apasyu Cultural Forum at Arihant Pre-University College campus organized auditions for PUC students, aiming to expand its vibrant community of performers and artists. These auditions were designed to identify talented individuals interested in participating in various cultural events, such as dancing, singing, and other artistic activities hosted by the forum. The primary goal of the auditions was to streamline the selection process for upcoming events and ensure the smooth organization of cultural activities. By doing so, the Cultural Forum seeks to provide students with a platform to express themselves creatively, build self-confidence, and develop essential social skills. The forum is committed to celebrating cultural diversity, allowing students to showcase their talents while fostering an inclusive environment. During the audition, the convenor and other forum members carefully evaluated each participant's abilities. The assessment involved an oral inquiry into the students' skills, creativity, strengths, stage presence, and overall confidence. The evaluators sought students who not only possessed talent but also demonstrated a passion for cultural expression and a willingness to grow within the forum. The success of previous events organized by the Apasyu Cultural Forum stands as a testament to its crucial role in fostering a supportive environment where students can thrive artistically and socially. These auditions mark another step in continuing that tradition, ensuring the forum remains a hub of cultural excellence at AGI Campus. The students who participated showcased immense potential, promising an exciting future for upcoming events.

A fresh new page A fresh new face

22nd May 2024, Arihant Pre-University College Campus hosted a lively and memorable Fresher's Day celebration, warmly welcoming the incoming batch of students. The event was packed with energy, fun, and numerous activities, allowing the freshers to showcase their talents while getting acquainted with their seniors.

Khushbu Jain and Diya Jain from II PUC took on the role of hosts, keeping the event lively with their humor and charm. The highlight of the evening was the much-anticipated ramp walk, where freshers confidently walked the stage, displaying their style and poise. This segment allowed the participants to express themselves while impressing the audience with their flair and personality.

A major crowd favorite was the stand-up comedy performance by II PUC student Nikhil, whose hilarious routine had everyone laughing uncontrollably. His clever punchlines and relatable humor kept the energy high throughout the event. The evening also featured captivating performances, including a skit that creatively depicted campus life and had the audience thoroughly entertained. In addition, soulful singing performances added to the charm of the celebration, showcasing the diverse range of talents among the freshers.

The event concluded with the crowning of Mr. and Ms. Fresher, a much-awaited moment. Aditya Bafna earned the title of Mr. Fresher for his charismatic presence, while Yaana Jain was named Ms. Fresher for her grace and confidence. The Fresher's Day celebration was a resounding success, filled with joy, laughter, and lasting memories for all who attended.

Let them Cook!! But without the use of fire

27th August 2024, Arihant Pre-University College Campus hosted an exciting "Cooking Without Fire" competition, designed to encourage creativity and healthy cooking practices among students. The event, which focused on preparing innovative dishes without the use of fire, saw enthusiastic participation from students across all classes.

Participants showcased their culinary skills by preparing a wide array of dishes using raw ingredients, and the creativity on display was impressive. From delicious salads and sandwiches to no-bake desserts and chats, the students came up with flavorful and visually appealing dishes, all while emphasizing health and sustainability.

After much consideration, Rishika and Sneha Jain were declared the winners for their exceptional dish, which impressed the judges with its originality, taste, and attractive presentation. Their innovative use of ingredients and thoughtful approach to healthy cooking earned them the top spot in the competition.

The event not only provided a platform for students to showcase their talent but also encouraged them to think creatively about food and nutrition. It was a fun-filled and educational experience, promoting the importance of healthy eating habits among students. The Cooking Without Fire competition concluded on a high note, with all participants receiving appreciation for their efforts, and the winners, Rishika and Sneha Jain, taking home well-deserved accolades for their outstanding performance.

Forum Inauguration

20th July 2024, Arihant Pre-University College proudly inaugurated its newly established Student Forum, aimed at fostering leadership, collaboration, and cultural engagement among students. The event marked the beginning of a new chapter for the student body, with the forum set to play a crucial role in organizing various academic, cultural, and social activities on campus. The ceremony commenced with a warm welcome from the faculty, followed by an address from the principal, who emphasized the importance of student involvement in campus life and the value of the forum in providing opportunities for personal and professional growth.

The forum's key objectives, including promoting teamwork, leadership skills, and community engagement, were highlighted. A major highlight of the event was the official badge distribution ceremony. Badges were distributed to the newly elected forum members, symbolizing their responsibilities and roles within the student community. Each member proudly received their badge, marking their commitment to leading their peers in organizing events, supporting campus initiatives, and fostering a sense of unity among students. The newly appointed forum president delivered a short speech, expressing gratitude for the opportunity and outlining plans for the upcoming academic year.
